Grant of an allowance of Rs 100/- per mensem to Mr. T. Ranganathan, Secretary Stores Purchase Committee, so long as he continues to perform the duties of the Secretary
Traffic Board in addition to his own.

ROUTINE NOTES.

MEMO OF REPRESENTATION.

I have put in 17 years of service. I was started on Rs 100/- and I am now drawing Rs 290/-, while as District Economic Superintendent and Special Officer in the Electrical Department my emoluments were Rs 300/-

2 The post of Secretary, Stores Purchase Committee is outside the cadre of Assistant Commissioners. All my predecessors were drawing Rs 500/- and more. I may be permitted to mention that the first Secretary Mr. M. S. Ramachendra Rao whose substantive pay was Rs 300/- was given a salary of Rs 500/- as a special case. Some of the other Secretaries who succeeded him were being given in addition to their grade pay as Senior Assistant Commissioners a duty allowance of Rs 100/- on account of the arduous nature of the work.

3 In view of the fact that the duties of the Secretary, Stores Purchase Committee have remained the same if not increased and that other items of work

N.B.—Should routine notes be written on small slips, the notes must be copied, or slips pasted on this form.

have also been added on to me, I beg that my case may be sympathetically considered and I may be allowed a few advance increments so as to raise my pay to at least Rs 400/-, from the date I took charge as Secretary, Stores Purchase Committee.

I submit that there is provision in the Stores Purchase Committee budget for meeting the extra pay that Government may be pleased to sanction.
It can also easily be met out of savings and allowances under Road Fund.

I understand similar advance increments have been allowed to the officers of the Police Department.

No. 1430-1/CB. 101-1 dated 28.10.1923. and his name was also included in the list of officers Asst. Commrs during the period of his employment as such. The salary of this appointment was fixed at Rs. 500-50-60 and Mr. Ramachandra Rao was given a pay of Rs. 550/- in the grade (vide G.O. No. 211-2/CB. 211-24-10 dated 18th July 1925) But successive officers who were appointed as Secy, S.P.C. thereafter were not given this grade on the ground that "the appointment being a temporary one, it is not desirable to have any fixed scale of pay for the same. and Messrs T. A. V. Iswaran (May 1926), G. M. Meekari (in October 1928) and S. V. Ganapathi Iyer (June 1929) were given their grade pay plus an allowance of Rs. 100/- p.m. When Mr. M. S. Ramachandra Rao was again appointed as Secy S.P.C. in 1930, he was given a salary of Rs. 600/- p.m. Reference is also invited to the notes in CB file no. 125-33-1.

July 1925, the scale of pay of the post ~~was~~ was fixed at Rs 500 - 50 - 600 & Mr. M. S. Ramachandra Rao given Rs 550 in the grade. Govt. however later considered it undesirable to have a fixed scale of pay for a temporary post, and in this way Messrs T. V. A. Ivaran, G. M. Mehkri and E. V. Ganapathi Iyer who succeeded Mr. M. S. Ramachandra Rao in 1926, 1928 & 1929 respectively were given their grade pay in the general line + an allowance of Rs 100 p.m. When Mr. M. S. Ramachandra Rao was once again transferred as Secy. S. P. 12 In the meantime, the organization had been made permanent ^{in 1932} and the question of fixing the emoluments of the post of Secy. S.P.C. came up for consideration on the appointment

The Dewan was also against the grant of any special pay for the appointment as it would lead to difficulties (as was experienced in the case of Mr. M. S. Ramachandra Rao).

~~and~~ in which case it is for consideration whether ~~the~~ any extra emolument may ~~be~~ be in the form of an allowance or higher pay. One other point that is submitted in this connection is that he has been also made Secretary of the Motor Transport Committee and it is for consideration whether the extra emoluments, if any sanctioned may not be debited to the Road Fund ~~as being given for the extra work~~ on his account

- 14 From the reference files put up, it will be seen that generally a Senior Officer in the assistant's grade was being appointed as Secy Stores Purchase Commission. In the present case, Mr T. Rangaswami happens to be a junior in the grade of Assistant Commr and is drawing a pay of only Rs 290.
- 15 The fact that the Scale of pay for the post in question had been fixed at Rs 500-50/- 600 indicates the responsibility of the work in that post. When the Scale was not adopted in later instances, an allowance of Rs 100 ^{p.m.} was given. Even in the case of Senior Officers like Messrs Mekhi and Ganapathi Iyer.
- 16 Reference is invited to the Pl. Secy's note in para 14 of File 125-33 and the Dewan's minute dated 19.1.34 (Flag 4) when Mr Vedatrasacharya represented that in view of the responsible nature of the work he had to do, he may be given an allowance of Rs 100 p.m. or a special pay. Though the request was not granted, it is to be noted that Mr Vedatrasacharya was a fairly Senior Officer in the grade of Assistant Commr and was in the running for a Senior assistant's post. In view of all these circumstances and having regard to the fact that in the exigencies of

"Y"). The post of the Secretary, Stores Purchase Committee is regarded as an Assistant Commissioner's charge and an officer belonging to that cadre is expect ed to fill any one of those ^{charges} ~~posts~~ getting his pay in the cadre. The distinction attempted to be made that one such charge is more onerous than another is not valid.

18 No doubt some allowance was given to the officers who held this post in the past when this office was newly started and the work was also new. But the necessity for the same is lessened after the office is in existence for a long time and work ^{has} got into a routine. ^{pay and} Special allowances are latterly viewed with disfavour and not sanctioned. Grant of special pay or additional allowances ^{in this case is not} ~~is~~ financially acceptable.

From the arguments advanced, it would appear that if an 19 It is no doubt true that the work relating to the Stores Purchase Committee is heavy and of a very responsible nature. It is in view of these considerations that generally senior officers are posted to this responsible charge. In addition to this work and that of the Publicity Department, Mr. Rangaswamy is at present doing the work of the Traffic Board, for which till now there was a separate Officer. Taking all things into consideration, I think some increase in emoluments is called for in the present case. As the work of the Traffic Board is heavy and is in the nature of an additional charge, an allowance of Rs.100 per mensem may be given to Mr. Rangasamy so long as he continues to attend to Traffic Board work also. The allowance will be met out of the Road Funds. The proposal for a special pay is fraught with difficulty.

20 This will bring his emoluments to Rs.400 nearly, which is suggested by the Chief Secretary.

23) I respectfully beg to represent as follows:-

As regards the grant of an allowance in addition to the grade pay of the officer, I have nothing to add to my previous note dated 3-4-1937 which still stands. The grant of an allowance in one case will also create a very inconvenient precedent and will give rise to applications from other officers for similar allowances which cannot easily be rejected.

24) Even if an allowance is considered to be absolutely necessary in this case for special reasons, the allowance proposed, viz., Rs.100 appears to be too high.

Though the total emoluments of the officer, including allowance of Rs.100, will be Rs.390 at present, it will raise to Rs.430, when he will get next increment in April next year, and will eventually come to Rs.550, though according to the original proposal, the intention was to give a consolidated pay of Rs.400/-. To meet this objection, I would suggest that the allowance may be reduced to Rs.50/-, and a condition imposed that the total emoluments of the officer (pay and allowance)

should not exceed Rs.400/-.

Final Note by the First Member of Council.

Subject.—

Proposal for the grant of an allowance of Rs.100 per mensem to Mr. T. Rangasamy, Secretary, Stores Purchase Committee, so long as he continues to perform the duties of the Secretary, Traffic Board in addition to his own.

26) The Mysore Road Traffic and Taxes Regulation came into force from the 1st January 1936, and Mr. H.S. Rangachar, District Traffic Superintendent, Mysore Railways, was deputed as full time Secretary to the Traffic Board, with an allowance of Rs.75, as there was a vast volume of work to be done in bringing the Regulation into force. This arrangement continued to be in force till February 1937, when Mr. Rangachar was reverted to the Railways, and Mr. T. Rangasamy, Secretary, Stores Purchase Committee, was appointed part-time Secretary, Traffic Board, in addition to his own duties.

E 27) On a representation from Mr. Rangasamy for enhanced emoluments on the ground that the work of the Stores Purchase Committee is by itself of an arduous nature, and that the addition of the Traffic Board has entailed much additional work on him, I noted as follows:-

48) "It is no doubt true that the work relating to the Stores Purchase Committee is heavy and of a very responsible nature. It is in view of these considerations that generally senior officers are posted to this responsible charge. In addition to this work and that of the Publicity Department, Mr. Rangaswamy is at present doing the work of the Traffic Board, for which till now there was a separate officer. Taking all things into consideration, I think some increase in emoluments is called for in the present case. As the work of the Traffic Board is heavy and is in the nature of an additional additional charge, an allowance of Rs.100 per mensem may be given to Mr. Rangasamy so long as he continues to attend to Traffic Board work also. The allowance will be met out of the Road Funds."

29) The Second Member of Council and the Dewan have agreed to this proposal. The Financial Secretary is of opinion that the grant of the allowance in one case would create a precedent, and that even if it is absolutely necessary to grant it, it might be fixed at Rs.50, subject to the condition that the total emoluments of the Officer do not exceed Rs.400.

30) I do not consider it necessary either to reduce the allowance, or impose any restrictions on the total emoluments, as the allowance is to be granted from Road Funds for additional work, and only so long as the Officer continues as Secretary to the Traffic Board, in addition to his own duties. The work of the Traffic Board is heavy and responsible, and the appointment of a part-time Secretary eliminates the necessity for the continuance of a full time Officer, which would have involved more expenditure to the Road Funds.

31) The proposal therefore to grant an allowance of Rs.100 to Mr. Rangasamy from the date he assumed charge of the duties of the Secretary, Traffic Board, may be graciously approved.
